

Bruce Kannry

Bruce is the Founding Board Member and first Board Chairman of Operation Support our Troops-America. Bruce joined the Marines at 17 and went into the service a couple of weeks after his 18th birthday in 1969. His time in the military included service in Viet Nam in 1970 which has been the bases for his ongoing support for both those in the services and veterans as well.

In March of 2003, at the beginning of the Iraq war, Bruce brought his military experiences, background, and personal commitment to the cause of supporting military personnel serving in Iraq and Afghanistan. Bruce dedicated his own personal resources as well as his business and leadership expertise to guide OSOT-America from a project in a garage to a full scale non-profit organization having shipped over a million pounds of support items to active military personnel in both Iraq and Afghanistan. In addition OSOT-America provided services and support to not only active duty military members but veterans and Families of Fallen as well. Bruce's company, NVISIA was one of the first sponsors of Rockin' for the Troops in 2006, an annual event featuring actor and musician, Gary Sinise, that has raised over four million dollars over the past ten years.
