

Scott F. Maxson, CPP, CFE

Scott Maxson is the Manager, Security & Intelligence for Takeda Pharmaceuticals, U.S.A., Inc., the largest pharmaceutical company in Japan and Asia and a top 15 global pharmaceutical company with its regional location in Deerfield, IL. Previously, Scott has held positions as Vice President - Security Risk Management and Vice President - Corporate Security and Safety for Aon Corporation, Director – Corporate/Physical Security and Safety for Hewitt Associates and as Director of Protective Services for Arthur Andersen.

Scott has been a presenter at the ASIS International Annual Seminar & Exhibits, the Annual Corporate Contingency Planning Seminar and Exhibition, the National Business Travel Association International Convention, at various webinars and has been highlighted in Security Magazine.

Maxson is a member of ASIS International and is Board Certified as a Protection Professional (CPP); the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners and is a Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE); earned a MBA from the University of Illinois-Chicago, a Bachelor in Commerce from DePaul University and an AA from Moraine Valley Community College, Palos Hills.

Scott is an honorably discharged veteran of the United States Army having served in various roles including recruiter's aid, armor crewman and company armorer. He is an honor graduate of the Army's Nuclear, Biological and Chemical Defense School and has been awarded the Army Achievement Medal for Meritorious Service along with letters and certificates of commendation.